

Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Amsterdam

3–4 days: canals, the Rijksmuseum, the Anne Frank House and windmills

Photo:

Amsterdam over a long weekend: canal walks and a boat trip, the Jordaan, the Rijksmuseum and Rembrandt, the Anne Frank House, Vondelpark and a half-day trip to the windmills of Zaanse Schans. On foot, by tram and by bike. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

The Netherlands is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Anne Frank: online only

Anne Frank House tickets are sold only online at annefrank.org and go fast

Mind the bikes

don't stand in bike lanes (red asphalt); bikes have priority

Same time

as in Central Europe

Apr–Sep

the best months; tulips bloom in April

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the canals

A walk along the canals, the Jordaan and the Negen Straatjes, an evening in a brown café.

2 Saturday: museums

The Rijksmuseum and Vondelpark in the morning, the Anne Frank House in the afternoon with a booking, a canal cruise in the evening.

3 Sunday: windmills

The train to the Zaanse Schans windmills in the morning, then fly home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

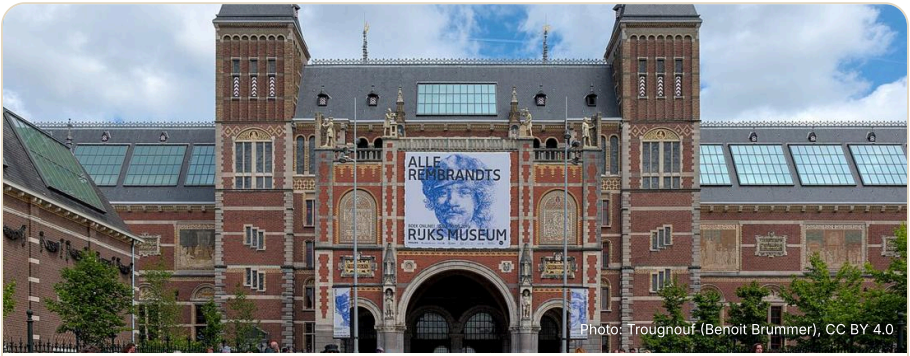

What you will see

The canals

The 17th-century canal ring, a UNESCO site.

Time: half a day

Rijksmuseum

Rembrandt's Night Watch and Vermeer.

Time: 3 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Amsterdam

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides