Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Budapest

3–4 days: Parliament, Buda Castle, the Széchenyi baths and a Danube cruise

Photo:

Budapest over a long weekend: Parliament on the Danube, Buda Castle and Fisherman's Bastion, the Széchenyi baths, the Great Market Hall, ruin bars in the Jewish Quarter and an evening Danube cruise. Metro, trams and walking. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Hungary is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Forint (HUF)

when paying by card always choose forints, not your home currency or euros

Parliament: book ahead

Parliament is visited only on tours; buy timed tickets in advance

Same time

as in Central Europe

Apr–Jun, Sep–Oct

the best months

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: Pest

The Great Market Hall and a lángos, the riverside to the Shoes on the Danube, an evening Danube cruise.

2 Saturday: Parliament, the baths

A Parliament tour, St Stephen's Basilica, the Széchenyi baths in the afternoon, ruin bars in the evening.

3 Sunday: Buda

The funicular up to the castle, Matthias Church and Fisherman's Bastion, then head home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Kilyann Le Hen, CC BY 4.0

Parliament

The neo-Gothic building on the Danube, home of the Holy Crown.

Time: 1 hour

Photo: Varius, CC BY-SA 3.0

Buda Castle

The hilltop palace with the National Gallery and views.

Time: 2 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Budapest

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides