Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Czechia

10 days: Prague, Kutná Hora, Český Krumlov and South Moravia

Photo: DominikCK1999, CC BY 4.0

Czechia from Prague to South Moravia by train and bus: Prague Castle and Charles Bridge, Gothic Kutná Hora, Český Krumlov in a bend of the Vltava, the modernist Villa Tugendhat in Brno, Lednice Castle among the vineyards and a boat ride through the Punkva Caves. Seven UNESCO sites in ten days, no car needed. You book everything yourself and keep the guide on your phone, offline too.

At a glance

Schengen
EU citizens need only an ID card; others check visa rules before travel

Checked

Czech crown
Czechia uses the koruna (CZK), not the euro; cards are accepted almost everywhere

Villa Tugendhat
tours sell out weeks or months ahead, book as soon as you can

Checked

Punkva Caves
buy timed tickets online in advance

Checked

≈ 3 h
Prague to Český Krumlov by bus or train

Estimate

May–Jun, Sep–Oct
the best months: warm and less crowded than summer

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Prague

Old Town Square and the astronomical clock, the Jewish Quarter, Charles Bridge in the evening.

2 Prague Castle

St Vitus Cathedral, Golden Lane, down through the Lesser Town and up Petřín Hill.

3 Kutná Hora

About an hour by train. St Barbara's Church, the Italian Court, the Sedlec Ossuary.

4

5

6

7

8

9

... and 7 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Free Art License

Charles Bridge, Prague

A Gothic bridge lined with statues, with Prague Castle above. Come early in the morning; by day it is packed.

Time: 1 hour

Photo: Jerzy Strzelecki, CC BY 3.0

St Barbara's Church, Kutná Hora

A Gothic cathedral built with silver-mining money. Nearby is the Italian Court where coins were minted.

Time: 2 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Czechia

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides