Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Austrian Alps with kids

7 days: Zell am See, the Krimml Falls, a glacier and Salzburg

Photo:

The Austrian Alps with kids in summer: swimming in Lake Zell, Austria's highest waterfalls at Krimml, the cable car up the Kitzsteinhorn glacier, the Sigmund-Thun gorge and finally Salzburg with the trick fountains at Hellbrunn and the funicular to the fortress. Half a day's drive from Czechia. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Austria is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

An ID for every child

every child needs their own valid travel document; if only one parent travels, a written consent from the other is useful (Czech MFA)

Checked

Motorway vignette

Austrian motorways require a vignette (digital or sticker)

Guest card

summer stays in Zell am See–Kaprun come with a guest card for discounts or free entries; check with your host

Jun–Sep

the best months: swimming, lifts running

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Travel day

The drive, swimming in the lake in the afternoon.

2 Krimml

The Krimml Waterfalls along the riverside path.

3 Glacier

The cable car up the Kitzsteinhorn for summer snow and the view.

4

5

6

7

... and 4 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Bestzeller, Public domain

Zell am See

A mountain lake with beaches and boats.

Time: 1 day

Photo: Arp, Public domain

Krimml Waterfalls

Austria's highest waterfalls, 380 metres.

Time: half a day

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Austrian Alps with kids

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides