Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Istria with kids

8 days: Poreč, Rovinj, the Brijuni islands and a water park

 Photo:

Istria with kids: gently shelving beaches at Poreč, the Istralandia water park, a boat along Lim Bay, the safari train on the Brijuni islands, the Roman arena in Pula and evenings in Rovinj. Two bases and short drives. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Croatia is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

An ID for every child

every child needs their own valid travel document; if only one parent travels, a written consent from the other is useful (Czech MFA)

Checked

Euro

Croatia uses the euro

Brijuni: book ahead

the national park boat to Brijuni leaves Fažana; book ahead in summer

Jun, Sep

the best months: warm sea, fewer people

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Travel day
The drive, an evening walk in old Poreč.

2 Beach
A gently shelving beach and the Euphrasian Basilica.

3 Water park
A full day at the Istralandia water park.

4

5

6

7

8

... and 5 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Florian Hirzinger, CC BY-SA 4.0

Rovinj

A colourful town on a peninsula with a hilltop church.

Time: evening

Photo: Aquamunda, CC BY 4.0

Euphrasian Basilica

Golden mosaics in Poreč, a UNESCO site.

Time: 1 hour

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Istria with kids

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides