Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Mallorca with kids

8 days: Alcúdia, the Drach caves, the Sóller train and the aquarium

Photo:

Mallorca with kids: the shallow sandy beach at Alcúdia, a concert on the underground lake in the Drach caves, the wooden train from Palma to Sóller, sharks at Palma Aquarium, Palma Cathedral and the Formentor viewpoint. Two bases. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Spain (Balearics) is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

An ID for every child

every child needs their own valid travel document; if only one parent travels, a written consent from the other is useful (Czech MFA)

Checked

Eco-tax, kids exempt

the Balearics charge a nightly tourist tax; children under 16 are exempt

Checked

Drach caves: timed

Drach cave tickets are sold for a set time

Jun, Sep

the best months: warm sea, fewer people

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Arrive

Pick up the car, drive to Alcúdia and swim.

2 Beach

The shallow beach at Alcúdia, the old town walls in the evening.

3 Formentor

The Cape Formentor viewpoint in the morning, Formentor beach in the afternoon.

4

5

6

7

8

... and 5 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Mike Lehmann, CC BY-SA 2.5

Alcúdia

A long shallow beach and a walled old town.

Time: 2 days

Photo: skellner (Flickr), CC BY 2.0

Drach caves

Stalactites and an underground lake with a concert.

Time: 2 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Mallorca with kids

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides