

Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

France

12 days: Paris, Versailles, the Loire châteaux, Provence and Nice

Photo: Lokeswaran Kaliyappan, CC BY-SA 3.0

France from Paris to the Riviera by TGV: the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre and Montmartre, the Hall of Mirrors at Versailles, Renaissance châteaux on the Loire, papal Avignon with the Roman Pont du Gard, and finally Nice by the sea. You book everything yourself and keep the guide on your phone, offline too.

At a glance

Schengen
EU citizens need only an ID card; others check visa rules before travel

Checked

Euro
cards accepted almost everywhere

Louvre and Versailles
buy timed tickets online in advance; Louvre booking is compulsory in peak periods

Checked

≈ 3 h 30 min
Avignon to Nice by train

Estimate

May–Jun, Sep
the best months: warm and less crowded than summer

Same time
as Central Europe

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Paris

Île de la Cité and Notre-Dame, the Latin Quarter, an evening Seine cruise.

2 Louvre and Eiffel Tower

The Louvre at your booked time, the Tuileries, the Eiffel Tower at night.

3 Versailles

About 40 minutes on RER C: the palace at your entry time, the gardens and the Trianons.

4

5

6

7

8

9

... and 9 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Benh LIEU SONG, CC BY-SA 3.0

Eiffel Tower, Paris

Walk up to the second floor or take the lift to the top. In the evening it sparkles for five minutes every hour.

Time: 2–3 hours

Photo: ToucanWings, CC BY-SA 3.0

Versailles

The royal palace with the Hall of Mirrors and vast gardens with fountains. Keep the afternoon for the gardens and Trianons.

Time: full day

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: France

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides