

Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Gothenburg

3–4 days: Haga, the archipelago, Liseberg and the fish market

 Photo:

Gothenburg over a long weekend: wooden houses and giant cinnamon buns in Haga, a ferry to the car-free southern archipelago, Liseberg amusement park, the Feskekôrka fish market, Slottsskogen park and Swedish fika. By tram and boat. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Sweden is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Ferries included

ferries to the southern archipelago from Saltholmen run on regular Västtrafik tickets

Liseberg: seasonal

the park opens mainly in summer, at Halloween and at Christmas; check dates online

Same time

as in Central Europe

May–Sep

the best months: swimming and the archipelago

Nearly cashless

pay by card or phone

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: Haga

The Feskekôrka fish market, the Haga district and fika with a giant bun, the view from the Skansen Kronan fort, Linné in the evening.

2 Saturday: the archipelago

Tram to Saltholmen and a ferry to Styrsö or Vrångö for walks and swimming. Liseberg in the evening if open.

3 Sunday: Avenyn

The Avenyn boulevard, Götaplatsen and Slottsskogen park with its free animal park, then fly home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Erik of Gothenburg, CC BY-SA 3.0

Haga

Wooden houses, cafés and giant cinnamon buns.

Time: 2 hours

Photo: Albin Olsson, CC BY-SA 3.0

Liseberg

Scandinavia's biggest amusement park.

Time: evening

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Gothenburg

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides