Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Kraków

3–4 days: the Rynek, Wawel, Kazimierz and Auschwitz

 Photo:

Kraków over a long weekend: the Main Square and St Mary's Basilica, Wawel Castle, the Kazimierz Jewish quarter, a full day at the Auschwitz-Birkenau memorial and, with an extra day, the Wieliczka salt mine. On foot and by train. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Poland is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Auschwitz: book ahead

entry to the Auschwitz-Birkenau memorial must be booked in advance at visit.auschwitz.org

Złoty (PLN)

cards are accepted almost everywhere; pay in złoty

Same time

as in Central Europe

May–Sep

the best months; a Christmas market on the Rynek in December

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the Rynek

The Main Square, the Cloth Hall and St Mary's Basilica with its bugle call.

2 Saturday: Auschwitz

A full day at Auschwitz I and Birkenau with a booking.

3 Sunday: Wawel, Kazimierz

Wawel Castle and Cathedral, Kazimierz and a zapiekanka, then head home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Jorge Lascar, CC BY 2.0

The Main Square

One of Europe's largest medieval squares.

Time: 2 hours

Photo: Monika Towiańska, CC BY-SA 4.0

Wawel

The royal castle and cathedral above the Vistula.

Time: 3 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Kraków

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides