Crete

10 days: Chania, Rethymno, Knossos and the island's lagoons

Photo: Moonik, CC BY-SA 3.0

Crete from west to east: the Venetian harbour of Chania, turquoise lagoons at Balos and Elafonisi, the Samaria Gorge in season, the old town of Rethymno, the Minoan palace of Knossos and a boat to the fortress island of Spinalonga. A rental car gives you freedom. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

Old harbour, Chania

A Venetian harbour with a lighthouse, colourful houses and a maze of lanes behind it. Lovely early in the morning and at sunset.

Time: half a day

Balos lagoon

Shallow turquoise water between a cape and an islet. Reach it by boat from Kissamos or by a rough road and a steep walk.

Time: 1 day
