Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

London

3–4 days: Westminster, the Tower, the South Bank and Borough Market

Photo:

London over a long weekend: Westminster and Big Ben, the Tower and Tower Bridge, free museums, Borough Market, Camden and a walk along the Thames. The Tube and lots of walking. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

Passport only the UK is not in the EU: an ID card is not enough, you need a passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

ETA in advance

an ETA on gov.uk/eta or the UK ETA app, £20 since 8 Apr 2026, valid 2 years; apply only through official channels

Checked

Free museums

the British Museum, National Gallery, Tate Modern and Natural History Museum are free for their permanent collections

−1 h

time difference from Central Europe

Pound (GBP)

cards are accepted almost everywhere, including the Tube

Type G plugs

British sockets: bring an adapter

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the South Bank

A walk along the South Bank from the London Eye to Tate Modern, then across the Millennium Bridge to St Paul's.

2 Saturday: Westminster

Big Ben, Parliament and Westminster Abbey, Buckingham Palace, Trafalgar Square and the National Gallery, Covent Garden in the evening.

3 Sunday: the Tower

The Tower of London and Tower Bridge in the morning, lunch at Borough Market, then fly home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Fuzzypiggy, CC BY-SA 3.0

Tower Bridge

The bascule bridge with towers and a glass walkway on top.

Time: 1 hour

Photo: ThatsTheBoss, CC0

Westminster and Big Ben

The Houses of Parliament and the most famous clock tower.

Time: 1 hour

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: London

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides