Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Malaysia

12 days: Kuala Lumpur, Cameron Highlands, Penang and Langkawi

Photo: Vyacheslav Argenberg, CC BY 4.0

Malaysia your way: the Petronas Towers and Batu Caves in Kuala Lumpur, the tea estates of the Cameron Highlands, street food and street art in George Town on Penang, and Langkawi's beaches and cable car to finish. Train, bus, ferry or a short flight. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

Visa-free up to 90 days for tourists with an EU passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

MDAC
mandatory online arrival card at imigresen-online.imi.gov.my, no earlier than 3 days before arrival; it is free

Checked

Entry stamp
after landing, check that your passport has an entry stamp or record (Czech MFA)

Checked

Sarawak
Sabah and Sarawak on Borneo run their own entry checks; this route doesn't go there

Checked

+7 h
time difference from Central Europe in winter, +6 h in summer

Plugs
British type G, 240 V: bring an adapter

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Arrive

KLIA Ekspres train to the centre, the Petronas Towers and KLCC Park in the evening.

2 Kuala Lumpur

Batu Caves in the morning, Merdeka Square and Central Market in the afternoon.

3 Chinatown

Petaling Street, Sri Mahamariamman Temple, Jalan Alor in the evening.

4

5

6

7

8

9

... and 9 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: James Kerwin from Tbilisi, CC BY 2.0

Petronas Towers

Twin towers of steel and glass with a bridge between them. Best in the evening from KLCC Park.

Time: half a day

Photo: Chainwit., CC BY-SA 4.0

Batu Caves

A Hindu temple in a limestone cave, reached by 272 colourful steps.

Time: 2–3 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Malaysia

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides