Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Munich

3–4 days: Marienplatz, the Viktualienmarkt, the English Garden and beer halls

Photo:

Munich over a long weekend: the Glockenspiel on Marienplatz, the Viktualienmarkt, surfers on the Eisbach wave in the English Garden, the Residenz, the Pinakothek galleries for one euro on Sundays, Nymphenburg Palace, the Olympic Park and an evening in a beer garden. A direct train or drive from Prague. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Germany is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Train from Prague

the direct train via Plzeň and Regensburg takes about 5.5 hours; from 13 Dec 2026 Leo Express runs the Czech section, so check tickets

Checked

Sundays for €1

state museums including the Pinakotheks charge €1 on Sundays

Shops shut on Sundays shops close on Sundays; museums and beer halls don't

Same time

as in Central Europe

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the Altstadt

Marienplatz and the Glockenspiel, the Frauenkirche, the Viktualienmarkt and the view from St Peter's tower. Hofbräuhaus or the quieter Augustiner in the evening.

2 Saturday: the Residenz and English Garden

The Residenz and its treasury, Odeonsplatz, the Eisbach surfers and the English Garden to the Chinese Tower for a beer. Schwabing in the evening.

3 Sunday: the Pinakotheks

The Alte or Neue Pinakothek for €1, Nymphenburg Palace or the Olympic Park in the afternoon, then head home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Marienplatz

The main square with the New Town Hall and its Glockenspiel.

Time: 1 hour

Viktualienmarkt

A food market with a beer garden in the middle.

Time: 1 hour

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Munich

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides