

Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Namibia

12 days: Sossusvlei, Swakopmund, Damaraland and Etosha

Photo: Daniel Kraft, CC BY-SA 3.0

Namibia your way: the red dunes of Sossusvlei and the dead trees of Deadvlei at dawn, seaside Swakopmund, rock engravings and desert elephants in Damaraland, and safari at the waterholes of Etosha. A loop in a rented 4×4 on gravel roads. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

Visa
Czech citizens need one; get it at Windhoek airport or online at eservices.mhaiss.gov.na (Czech MFA)

Checked

With children
a birth certificate with an English translation; if only one parent travels, the other's consent

Checked

+1 h
time difference from Central Europe in winter, the same time in summer

May–Oct
the best months: dry, cooler nights, animals at waterholes

Drive on the left traffic drives on the left; most roads are gravel

Plugs
types D and M, 220 V: bring an adapter

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Arrive
Visa at the airport, pick up the car, buy water and food.

2 South
Over the Spreetshoogte Pass to Sesriem, the canyon at sunset.

3 Sossusvlei
Climb Big Daddy or Dune 45 at dawn, Deadvlei.

4

5

6

7

8

9

... and 9 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Harald Süpfle, CC BY-SA 2.5

Sossusvlei

Some of the world's highest dunes in the red Namib desert, a UNESCO site.

Time: 1 day

Photo: Desertman, CC BY-SA 3.0

Deadvlei

A white clay pan with black dead trees below red dunes.

Time: half a day

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Namibia

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides