

Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Paris

3–4 days: the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre, Notre-Dame and Montmartre

Photo:

Paris over a long weekend: the Eiffel Tower at dusk, the Louvre, the reopened Notre-Dame, the lanes of the Marais and Montmartre, and Versailles if you have an extra day. Metro, RER and plenty of walking along the Seine. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

France is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Louvre: timed entry

book Louvre tickets with an entry time on louvre.fr; the Louvre is closed on Tuesdays

Versailles shut Mondays

the Palace of Versailles is closed on Mondays; book timed tickets ahead

Same time

as in Central Europe

Apr–Jun, Sep–Oct

the best months

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: Cité and the Marais

Notre-Dame and Sainte-Chapelle, a stroll through the Marais, the Trocadéro and the lit-up Eiffel Tower in the evening.

2 Saturday: the Louvre

The Louvre in the morning with a booking, the Tuileries and the Champs-Élysées to the Arc de Triomphe. The Latin Quarter or a Seine boat in the evening.

3 Sunday: Montmartre

Montmartre and Sacré-Cœur and its view in the morning, then fly home.

4

… and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Benh LIEU SONG, CC BY-SA 3.0

The Eiffel Tower

The best view is from the Trocadéro; go up with a ticket from the official site.

Time: 2 hours

Photo: Benh LIEU SONG (Flickr), CC BY-SA 3.0

The Louvre

The world's largest museum, the Mona Lisa and the glass pyramid.

Time: 3 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Paris

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides