Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 6 NOV 2026

Portugal

12 days: Porto, Lisbon, Sintra and the Algarve

Photo: Public domain

Portugal from north to south without a car: Porto and the Douro valley, Lisbon with a day in fairy-tale Sintra, and the golden cliffs of the Algarve at the end. All transfers are by train, and you fly in to Porto and home from Faro. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card
is enough for Czech and other EU citizens

Euro
cards accepted almost everywhere

−1 h
time difference from Central Europe all year

≈ 3 h
Porto to Lisbon on the fast Alfa Pendular train

Estimate

Mar–Jun, Sep–Oct
the best months: warm but not crowded

Timed tickets
Pena Palace in Sintra is visited with a booked time slot

Checked

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Arrive in Porto

Metro from the airport, an evening walk to the Ribeira riverside.

2 Porto

São Bento station tiles, the cathedral, Livraria Lello, across the Dom Luís I bridge to a port cellar in Gaia.

3 Douro valley

Day trip by train to Pinhão or a guided tour with a wine tasting and a river boat.

4

5

6

7

8

9

… and 9 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

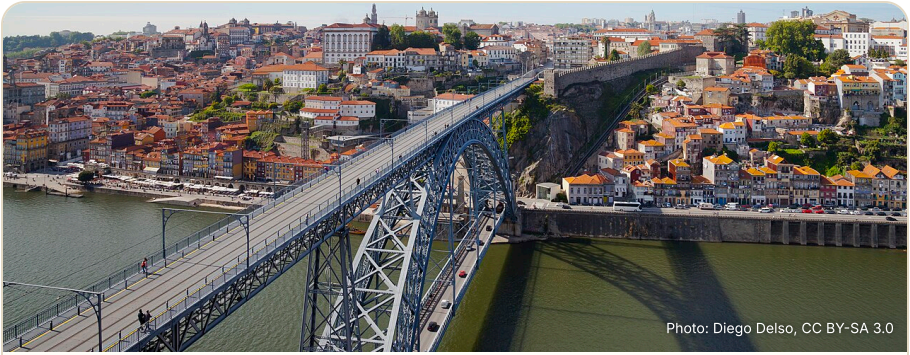

Photo: Diego Delso, CC BY-SA 3.0

Ribeira, Porto

Colourful houses tumbling down to the Douro river and the iron Dom Luís I bridge. Cross the upper level at sunset for the best view.

Time: half a day

Photo: Fimartinho, CC BY-SA 3.0

Douro valley

Terraced vineyards along the river, the home of port wine. The train ride up the valley is one of Europe's prettiest.

Time: 1 day

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Portugal

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides