Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Prague

3–4 days: Prague Castle, Charles Bridge, Old Town Square and Vyšehrad

Photo:

Prague over a long weekend: Old Town Square and the astronomical clock, Charles Bridge at dawn, Prague Castle and the Lesser Town, the view from Petřín, the Jewish Quarter, Vyšehrad and evenings in Vinohrady beer halls. On foot, by tram and metro. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

EU and Schengen

Czechia is in the EU and Schengen; EU citizens need only an ID card

Koruna (CZK)

cards are accepted almost everywhere; pay in koruna, not a converted currency

Castle: ticket needed

the Prague Castle grounds are free; the cathedral and other buildings need a ticket (hrad.cz)

PID tickets

24 or 72-hour tickets in the PID Lítačka app or from machines

Apr–Jun, Sep–Oct

the best months; Christmas markets in December

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the Old Town

Old Town Square and the astronomical clock, Týn Church, the lanes down to Charles Bridge, and the evening view from the Old Town Bridge Tower.

2 Saturday: the Castle

The Náplavka farmers' market in the morning, then Prague Castle with St Vitus Cathedral and Golden Lane, the Lesser Town and Petřín. Vinohrady beer halls in the evening.

3 Sunday: Josefov and Vyšehrad

The Jewish Quarter and its synagogues, Vyšehrad and its view over the Vltava in the afternoon, then head home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Tilman2007, CC BY-SA 4.0

Prague Castle

One of the world's largest castle complexes, with St Vitus Cathedral.

Time: half a day

Photo: A.Savin, Free Art License

Charles Bridge

The Gothic bridge of statues, best early in the morning.

Time: 1 hour

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Prague

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides