Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Seville

3–4 days: the Alcázar, the cathedral and Giralda, Plaza de España and flamenco

Photo:

Seville over a long weekend: the royal Alcázar, the cathedral and Giralda tower, the lanes of Santa Cruz, Plaza de España in María Luisa Park, the wooden Setas, the Triana district and flamenco at night. On foot and by tram. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Spain is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Alcázar: timed entry

Alcázar tickets are sold online for a set time

Summer 40 °C

July and August can top 40 °C; sightsee in the morning and evening

Same time

as in Central Europe

Mar–May, Oct–Nov

the best months; orange blossom in spring

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the cathedral

The cathedral and the climb up the Giralda, the lanes of Santa Cruz, flamenco in the evening.

2 Saturday: the Alcázar

The Alcázar in the morning with a booking, Plaza de España and María Luisa Park in the afternoon, tapas in Triana in the evening.

3 Sunday: the Setas

The view from the Setas (Metropol Parasol) and a riverside walk, then fly home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Ajay Suresh from New York, NY, USA, Edited by MenkinAfire, CC BY 2.0

The Alcázar

The Moorish-style royal palace and gardens.

Time: 2.5 hours

Photo: Ingo Mehling, CC BY-SA 4.0

Cathedral and Giralda

One of the largest Gothic cathedrals; its tower was a minaret.

Time: 2 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Seville

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides