Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 6 NOV 2026

Sicily

10 days: Palermo, the Valley of the Temples, the Baroque south and Etna

Photo: Berthold Werner, CC BY-SA 4.0

A loop around Sicily's greatest hits: Arab-Norman Palermo and Monreale, the Greek temples of Agrigento, the golden Baroque towns of Noto and Ragusa, Syracuse's island of Ortigia, and Taormina below Mount Etna. A rental car is the way to do it. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card
is enough for Czech and other EU citizens

Euro
cards widely accepted; carry cash for markets and small bars

0 h
same time as Central Europe

ZTL
limited traffic zones in old towns: driving in without a permit means a fine

Apr–Jun, Sep–Oct
the best months: warm, green in spring, sea warm in autumn

Etna
upper areas only with authorised volcano guides, depending on activity

Checked

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Arrive in Palermo

Pick up the car later (not needed in the city), evening walk on Via Maqueda and Quattro Canti.

2 Palermo

Ballarò market, the cathedral, the Palatine Chapel in the Norman Palace.

3 Monreale and Cefalù

Monreale cathedral's golden mosaics, then the seaside town of Cefalù.

4

5

6

7

8

9

... and 7 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Urban, CC BY-SA 3.0

Palatine Chapel, Palermo

A small royal chapel covered in golden Byzantine mosaics and an Arab wooden ceiling, inside the Norman Palace. Check opening days before you go.

Time: 1–2 hours

Photo: Holger Uwe Schmitt, CC BY-SA 4.0

Monreale Cathedral

Above Palermo, with one of the largest mosaic interiors in the world and a beautiful cloister.

Time: 2 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Sicily

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides