Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Spain

12 days: Barcelona, Madrid, Toledo, Seville and Granada

Photo: Ingo Mehling, CC BY-SA 4.0

Spain by high-speed train from the Mediterranean to Andalusia: Gaudí's Barcelona, the Prado and Madrid's lively squares, Gothic Toledo, Seville with its Alcázar and flamenco, and finally the Alhambra in Granada. You book everything yourself and keep the guide on your phone, offline too.

At a glance

Schengen
EU citizens need only an ID card; others check visa rules before travel

Checked

Euro
cards accepted almost everywhere

Alhambra
tickets sell out; Nasrid Palaces at the time on your ticket, ID checked at entry

Checked

Sagrada Família
buy timed tickets online in advance

Checked

≈ 2 h 30 min
Barcelona to Madrid by high-speed train

Estimate

Mar–May, Sep–Oct
the best months; Andalusia tops 40 °C in summer

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Barcelona

The Gothic Quarter, the cathedral, La Rambla and the Boqueria market.

2 Gaudí

Sagrada Família at your booked time, Casa Batlló from the street, Park Güell with a ticket.

3 Barcelona

El Born, Barceloneta beach, sunset from Montjuïc or the Bunkers del Carmel.

4

5

6

7

8

9

… and 9 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Sagrada Família, Barcelona

Gaudí's unfinished basilica: a forest of columns and coloured light from the windows. Loveliest in the afternoon.

Time: 2 hours

Park Güell, Barcelona

Mosaics, the lizard and a view over the city. The mosaic area needs a timed ticket.

Time: 2 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Spain

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides