Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Stockholm

3–4 days: Gamla stan, the Vasa Museum, Skansen and City Hall

Photo:

Stockholm over a long weekend: medieval Gamla stan and the Royal Palace, the 17th-century Vasa warship, the Skansen open-air museum on Djurgården, a City Hall tour, views from Södermalm and fika with a cinnamon bun. Metro, ferries and walking. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Sweden is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Nearly cashless

Sweden pays by card or phone; some places don't take cash at all

City Hall: tours only

City Hall is visited only on guided tours with timed tickets

Same time

as in Central Europe

May–Sep

the best months: in June the sun barely sets

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: Gamla stan

The lanes of Gamla stan, Stortorget and the Royal Palace.

2 Saturday: Djurgården

The ferry to Djurgården for the Vasa Museum and Skansen, Södermalm in the evening.

3 Sunday: City Hall

A City Hall tour and the Monteliusvägen viewpoint, then fly home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Arild Vågen, CC BY-SA 4.0

Gamla stan

The medieval Old Town on an island.

Time: half a day

Photo: JavierKohen, CC BY-SA 3.0

Vasa Museum

The warship that sank on its maiden voyage in 1628.

Time: 2 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Stockholm

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides